Special Board Meeting Feb. 20, 7:00 p.m. École J.H. Sissons

YK1 Trustees voted on Tuesday to recommend that a replacement school for École J.H. Sissons be built on a different site on the property. The Board was asked by the Department of Education, Culture and Employment to provide a recommendation in order to meet GNWT capital planning requirements.

While Trustees heard support for building on the existing site to protect the surrounding environment, parents and other stakeholders felt that option would cause disruption to students, staff and parents. The final decision for a site option rests with the territorial government.

Town Hall Meeting Feb. 15, 7:00 p.m. École J.H. Sissons

YK1 hosted a town hall meeting at École J.H. Sissons on Feb. 15 to discuss site options and student accommodations as the district plans a replacement school. Representatives from YK1, Taylor Architecture Group and the departments of Infrastructure and Education, Culture and Employment received feedback during open mic sessions and in the form of flip chart comments. All seven YK1 Trustees were in attendance.

Board Highlights February 21, 2018

International Field Trip Approved

YK1 Trustees approved École Sir John Franklin High School's 2018 international field trip during their regular board meeting on Feb. 13. Students from the high school will be visiting Italy and Croatia this year after visiting Germany, Poland and the Czech Republic last year.

Indigenous Honour Ceremony Contribution

YK1 Trustees announced their annual contribution to the Indigenous Honour Ceremony on Feb. 13. This year, Trustees agreed to contribute $750 to the ceremony instead of $500. The event celebrates Indigenous graduates from École Sir John Franklin High School at the end of every year.

Faits saillants du conseil d'administration 21 février 2018

Réunion extraordinaire du conseil d'administration École J. H. Sissons 20 fév. à 19 h

Mardi, après avoir passé au vote, les membres du conseil ont recommandé de bâtir une nouvelle école J. H. Sissons ailleurs sur la propriété. Le ministère de l'Éducation, de la Culture et de la Formation a demandé au conseil de fournir des recommandations qui respectent les exigences de planification des immobilisations du GTNO. Bien que les membres du conseil aient entendu des points de vue favorables concernant la construction d'une école sur la propriété actuelle pour protéger l'environnement immédiat, certains parents et autres intervenants ont jugé que cette option perturberait les activités des élèves, du personnel et des parents. Le choix définitif de l'emplacement revient au gouvernement territorial.

Assemblée publique École J. H. Sissons 15 fév. à 19 h

YK1 a tenu une assemblée publique à l'école J. H. Sissons, le 15 février pour discuter des options d'emplacement et des mesures d'adaptation pour les élèves pendant que le district remplace l'école. Les représentants de YK1, de Taylor Architecture Group et des ministères de l'Infrastructure et de l'Éducation, de la Culture et de la Formation ont recueilli des commentaires sur un tableau papier lors d'une tribune libre. Les sept membres du conseil étaient présents.

Approbation du voyage scolaire international

Les membres du conseil ont autorisé le voyage scolaire international de 2018 de l'école secondaire Sir John Franklin durant leur réunion ordinaire du conseil le 13 février. Après avoir visité l'Allemagne, la Pologne et la République tchèque l'an dernier, les élèves visiteront cette année l'Italie et la Croatie.

Contribution à la cérémonie honorifique autochtone

Les membres du conseil d'administration ont annoncé la contribution de YK1 à la cérémonie honorifique autochtone, le 13 février 2018. Cette année, les membres ont accepté d'offrir 750 $ au lieu de 500 $. Cette cérémonie souligne l'obtention du diplôme des élèves autochtones de l'école secondaire Sir John Franklin à la fin de chaque année.
