Career day organized by the University of Ottawa

Workshops for high school graduates

What? Workshops led by students from each of Health disciplines offered at the University of Ottawa: medicine, audiology, occupational therapy, nutrition, physiotherapy, nursing, orthophony, social work

Why? Allow better understanding and discovery of the work of various professionals in their respective fields

When? Saturday, November 16th, from 8:00am-4:00pm

Registration? You must register online no later than October 28th, 5 pm

Link to Register? www.cnfs.ca, follow the link and go under the "À l'affiche" so called section

Location? Sir John Franklin High School

Information sessions for parents

What? Opportunity for parents who wish to meet with people from the University of Ottawa who can inform them about programs in health sector

When? In the afternoon on November 16; 01:00pm to 04:00pm