Re: Jeff McConomy named assistant principal of École J.H. Sissons starting in 2019-2020

Yellowknife Education District No. 1 (YKI) is pleased to announce the appointment of Jeff McConomy as assistant principal of École J.H. Sissons effective August 26, 2019. Jeff will be taking over for the school's current assistant principal, Brigitte Rivet, who is transitioning to a teaching position at the school next year.

Jeff is currently working as the Intensive/Post-Intensive French coach for the district. He has taught a wide variety of programs and grade levels over the course of his tenure with YK1, including Grade 6 Intensive French, Grades 7 and 8 Post-Intensive French, Grade 7 French Immersion, as well as the Pre-Intensive French camps for Grade 5 students. Jeff graduated from Wilfrid Laurier University in Ontario with a B.A. in French and with minors in English and History. He later moved to St. John's, where he completed his B.Ed at Memorial University. Jeff is set to begin his M.Ed this year, focusing on second-language curriculum design and implementation. He has been with YK1 since 2014.

Outside of the classroom, Jeff is currently the president of CPF (Canadian Parents for French) NWT. He is also fond of reading, rugby, travelling, philosophy and tea. Jeff is keen to begin his new role at École J.H. Sissons.
